St. Vincent and the Grenadines is an island nation in the Lesser Antilles chain of the Caribbean Sea. St. Vincent has long been a sailor's haven but many have come to experience the undersea terrain. St. Vincent, rich in tranquility, is a mountainous 133 square-mile island that is full of contrasts and surprises. Explore the tropical paradise of Coral Castle, Turtle Bay, Bottle Reef and many other sites on your dives. You will be amazed with the variety and abundance of unique marine life in St. Vincent.

The island of Bequia known as the "jewel" in the Grenadines has a unique magical old-world charm. 7 square miles of relatively undiscovered lush green hillsides and beautiful sandy beaches with reefs perfect for diving. Bequia diving offers a wonderful array of gently sloping reefs and sea-life ranging from Hawksbill turtles to black-tip sharks to tarpon six feet in length.

Join us and discover the charming islands of St. Vincent and Bequia for an exuberating dive experience!
